Respite care provides much needed short-term breaks that can relieve stress and restore energy. Apart from working with family members, relatives, friends, neighbours, or hiring a domestic helper, there are commercial respite care options that allow you to take short breaks. Caregivers can use this short time to rest, pursue their own hobbies or run personal errands. For the most updated list, you can refer to the AIC website at www.aic.sg.
